

These Distinguished Seniors Receive High Recognition

Twelve College Seniors Are Selected by "Who's Who" for Listing in National Book Publication

This year twelve students have been selected for listing in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." Eleven seniors and one junior were chosen for this recognition on the basis of character, social life, and scholarship.

Herbert LaVergne Awe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Awe, is from River Grove, Illinois. Herbert is active in Sigma Tau Gamma, Alpha Psi Omega, and Kappa Delta Pi.

He is Northwest Missourian editor, treasurer of the Missouri College Newspaper Association, and president of Kappa Delta Pi. Previously he was Homecoming chairman, Student Senate treasurer, class president 1, 2, sports editor of Northwest Missourian 1; co-editor, 2; editor, 3; A.A.U.P. honor student 1, 2, 3. He had the lead in "Our Town" and was a member of the cast in "Taming of the Shrew" and in "Joan of Lorraine."

Herbert has a double major in social science and history with a minor in political science. After graduation in May, 1952, with a B. S. degree, he plans to enter law school at Northwestern University.

Joe Edward Collier, from Shenandoah, Iowa, comes from a family of educators. He is son of Mr. and Mrs. Oral E. Collier.

Prior to this year Joe has been secretary and treasurer of Alpha Phi Omega, parliamentarian of the Independent Club, business manager of the Tower, president of Off Campus club, and a member of Kappa Delta Pi.

This year he is president of Alpha Phi Omega, president of the Senior class, and business manager of the Tower.

He was a representative to 1950-1951 Alpha Phi Omega National Convention, a member of the World Student Service Fund Committee 1950-1951, and is a member of the Religious Emphasis Week Committee this year.

Joe has a double major of biology and chemistry. He expects to receive his B. S. in May, 1952. He plans to teach school or perhaps work for the F. B. I.

Betty Fern Curry, vocational home economics major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert F. Curry of Rock Port.

During her four years in college Betty has become active in Delta Sigma Epsilon, Kappa Omicron Phi, Home Economics Club, Kappa Delta Pi, Student Senate, Student Union, student-faculty affairs committee, Dance Club, and Residence Hall Council.

She is president of Kappa Omicron Phi, vice president of Kappa Delta Pi, vice president of Delta Sigma Epsilon, and a member of the Religious Emphasis committee. She was president of the Home Economics Club in 1949-1950.

Betty has been honored with the A. A. U. W. Scholarship loan and Danforth Student Scholarship.

Betty expects to graduate in May, 1952, after which she plans to be a vocational home economics teacher.

Richard Lee Gordon, President of the student body Richard Lee Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gordon of Hopkins, is a business major and social science minor.

Besides being president of the Student Senate, he has been president of the O. K. Klub, treasurer of the Independent Club, editor and business manager of the Tower, and vice president of Pi Omega Pi.

Richard has been selected as a representative of N.W.M.S.C. for a possible trip to the National Association of Manufacturers' 46th Congress in New York. After he receives his B. S. degree, Richard says he may possibly be a business teacher, do post graduate work, start in business, or enter Uncle Sam's services.

Joan Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hansen of Bedford, is a vocational home economics major.

Joan is vice president of the senior class, treasurer of Swim Club, scrap book chairman of Sigma Sigma Sigma, member of the Green and White Peppers, and Homecoming queen in 1951. She has been a cheer leader for two years.

She was alternate to Miss Northwest Missouri during this year's Harvest at Maryville.

After receiving her degree at the end of the spring quarter, Joan plans to teach home economics.

Oretta Ann Knipmeyer, better known as "Knippy" is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Knipmeyer of Alma.

Oretta has been vice president and secretary of the Independent Club, president and vice president of the Student Christian Association, and a member of the Student Senate. She was co-chairman of Religious Emphasis Week, co-chairman of World Student Service Fund Drive, and a member of the Student Handbook revision committee.

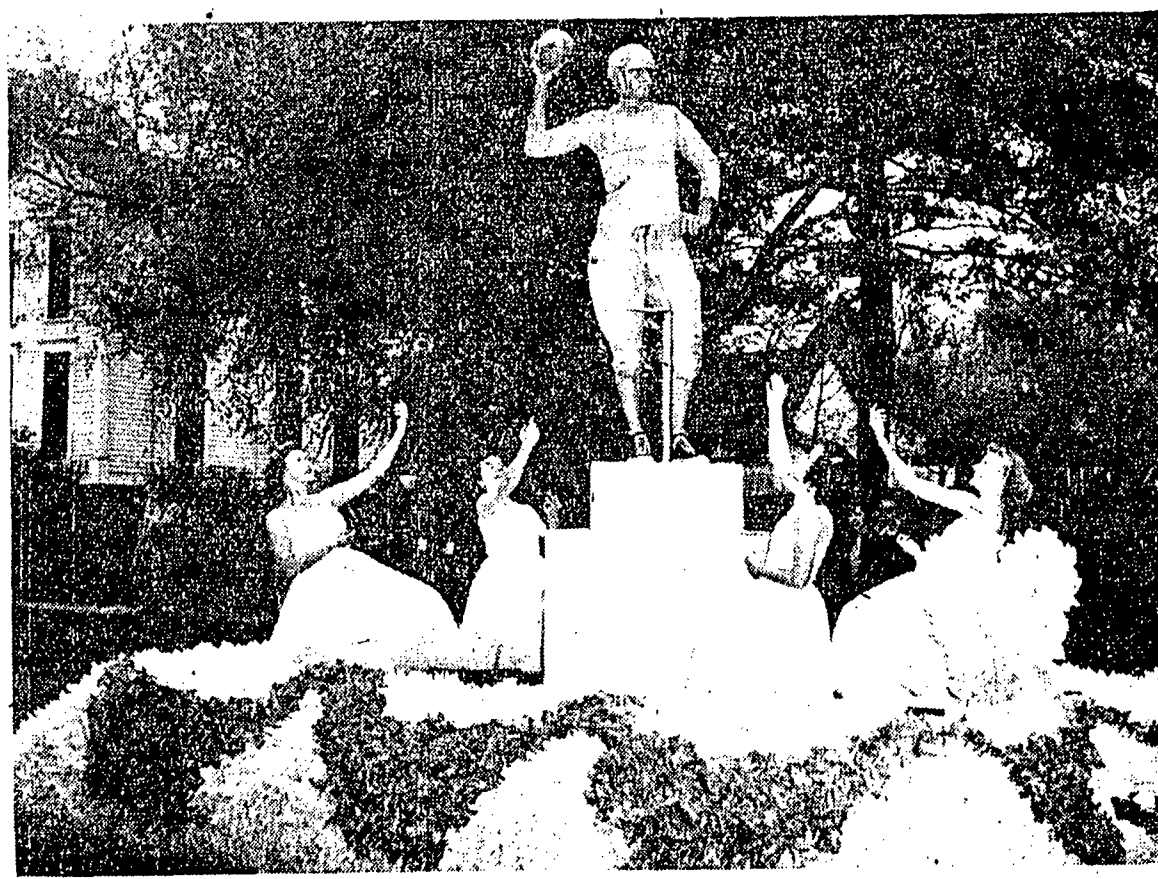

This year Oretta is president of the Independent Club and a member of the Student Christian Association, Future Teachers of America, and Barkatze.

Her major field is social science with minors in history and sociology.

She expects to receive her B. S. degree in May, 1952. After graduation she plans to do social service work.

A Golden "Statue" Which Helped to Net 5 Points

One of the most impressive floats of the Homecoming parade was this Cooperative Independents' contribution. The judges awarded a first place to this float as the best all-around entry. A second was also given to it in the most beautiful class. The statue is Bob Wilcoxson. Left to right on the float are Louise Novinger, Louise Wintemute, Marilyn Litton and Joan Kowitz.

Pfc. Melville Strong Sends Leaflets From Korea to States

Pvt. Melville Strong, son of Dr. J. Gordon Strong, who is chairman of the division of science and mathematics, has been awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge, a symbol of close-quarter fighting with the enemy. Pvt. Strong is serving with the 1st Cavalry Division in Korea.

Dr. and Mrs. Strong recently received from their son some propaganda leaflets which were put out in the interest of the United Nations for distribution to the fighting communists.

Concerns Peace Discussions

One of the leaflets was supposedly a Korean mother's letter. In the letter the mother said, "I earnestly hope the peace discussions accomplish meritorious results; my son can peacefully return to his family."

Still another bulletin was intended to inform the Chinese communists that within three days, October 4 to 6, their dead and wounded had totaled 7506.

Safe Conduct Pass

Perhaps the most important leaflet was a safe conduct pass, bearing as it did the assurance of General Ridgway and his associates the guarantee of its validity. This pass, to the Chinese officers and soldiers in Korea, reminded the men of the aid which the Americans had given to Chinese land forces during the Second World War.

It points out that the United Nations have always been kindly in their treatment of the officers and soldiers. The United Nations promise food, shelter, medical care, and competent interpreters to those soldiers who will "come over on the run!"

The pass concludes with a plea for the men to do "the intelligent thing" as a means of avoiding greater suffering and death in sure defeat.

Biology Department Improves Laboratory

Work that is being done to improve the laboratory of the biology department is expected to be finished at the end of the fall quarter. Sterilizers, incubators, a hot water heater, sink, range and a refrigerator will be included in a new working unit. Elementary Bacteriology 101 and General Botany 61a will use the unit the winter quarter.

More storage space will be provided with the completion of a new store room and an office. The room will have bookshelves, cabinets, tables, and a sink with an office partitioned to one side. Fluorescent lights will be installed, work tables will be refinished, and some replastering and redecorating will be done.

With new equipment and more space, the department can relieve the crowded condition of the old laboratory, and can thus function more efficiently.

Independents and Alpha Sigma Alpha Tie for Supremacy Cup

Tri Sigs Finish Third; Taus and Delta Sigmas Take Fourth and Fifth; Competition Was Keen

Alpha Sigma Alpha and the Cooperative Independents tied for the Supremacy trophy and are to be presented with that token in an assembly next week by Dr. John L. Harr, faculty chairman of the Homecoming Committee.

These two organizations earned this distinction for outstanding work in the many festivities that the 1951 Homecoming celebration featured.

The Supremacy trophy must be won three times before any one organization can retain it as its own. The Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity won the trophy in 1948, the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority and the Independents tied in 1949, and last year the Alpha Sigma Alpha won in a close race.

The results of this year show that if either the Alphas or the Independents win the trophy next year it will be theirs for retention, since each has now won the award twice. Third place honors went to the Tri Sigs while the Taus took the fourth spot. Fifth place was given to the Delta Sigs and the Association for Childhood Education garnered enough points to get sixth.

Based On Point System

Consideration for judging the many organizations was based upon a point system, five points being the award for a first rating, four for a second, three for a third, etc. There were five divisions in which organizations competed for points; these were the variety show, house decorations, parade participation, alumni functions, and all-around participation and spirit.

The latter is a difficult judging feat and consequently is based upon a relative basis. Contributions of chairmen to the Homecoming Committee and work on the various phases of Homecoming constitute great consideration in this division.

According to points the organizations lined up as follows: Alpha Sigma Alpha and Independents had a total of 16 points; Sigma Sigma Sigma 13.5; Sigma Tau Gamma 10.5;

Delta Sigma Epsilon 9.0; and A. C. E. 6.5.

The Alphas placed in every event. In the variety show a first place tie netted them 4.5 points. A second in house decorations contributed 4 more to their aggregation.

Parade participation pulled them down to 2 points with a fourth, but in all-around participation and spirit a 4.5 point earning, plus a 1 for an alumni function, raised the total to 16.

Take Two Firsts

Beginning Friday night the Independents received naught for their Variety Show skit, but then swept first in the house decorations and in parade participation for 10 points.

Because of their excellent cooperation with the Homecoming Committee, they received five points for all-around participation and spirit, which, in addition to the 1 point for an alumni function, totaled them into a tie.

Twenty-seven organizations participated in the Homecoming activities, some more actively than others, but each contributing in some way. Last year only twenty-two took part in the celebration.

The assigning of points indicates that many organizations were enthusiastic participants in the Homecoming affairs. Last year the Sig Taus and the A. C. E. made no showing at all, but this year they climbed into close competition.

Judging Was Difficult

Judging was very difficult, and the Homecoming Committee believes that the judges did a remarkable job. They were non-partisan and unaffiliated with the College in any way.

Many renovations, however, have been suggested and immediate effect will take place upon the formulation of the 1952 Homecoming Committee. Maryville is definitely going forward.

Dr. Harr Speaks on Recreation

Dr. John Harr spoke to the Fine Arts 11 class, Tuesday, October 23 about a recreation program for the city of Maryville. The Fine Arts 11 class is making a mural depicting several activities for a recreation program.

Janet Wilson Attends Homecoming

Janet Wilson, who taught home economics on the campus last year, was here for Homecoming.

Meier as Christus

Josef Meier portrays the part of the Christus in the Black Hills Passion Play which will be presented in the College Auditorium Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. It is a great event.

Religious Meetings Highlight Week's Campus Activities

Religious Emphasis Week officially began Sunday evening with a retreat for leaders and committee members, held at the Presbyterian Church. All classes were dismissed for the first assembly which was held Monday, November 5, 10 a.m., with the Rev. John Oert of the First Presbyterian Church, St. Joseph, as the speaker.

Professor Maurice Freemyer of Conception Abbey was the speaker at the assembly held Tuesday morning at 9 a.m.

This morning, Arthur Hollister, Associate Executive, West Central Area, Y.M.C.A., will give an address. Thursday morning at 11 a.m., Miss Garnet Guild, College Secretary, Friends Service Committee, is scheduled to speak.

In connection with this annual event, the speakers are also addressing classes, organizations, and holding seminars.

Senate Elections Will Be in Winter Quarter

The regular scheduled election of Senators will take place the second week of the winter quarter. The freshmen, sophomore, and junior classes shall nominate and elect one senator each as their representatives for three terms on the Student Senate and the Senior Class shall nominate and elect one two-term Senator to represent the class for the remainder of the year.

There are two classes which will make replacements in addition to nomination of the one representative. These classes will be notified.

Election of Freshman Class officers will take place at this election also.

Black Hills Presentation Stars Josef Meier in Exquisite Story

Background Music and Lighting Effects Give Impressive Touch to All-Popular Production

Each summer in an amphitheater outside Spearfish, South Dakota, and throughout the nation in winter tours, Josef Meier raises his arms in quiet, but insistent pleading to say: "Oh, ye children of God, Ye who live and breathe in His infinite love, open your hearts, and receive with childlike confidence His great message."

Those words from the prologue set the mood of the Passion Play, brought to this country nineteen years ago from Germany by Meier who plays the Christus in the Black Hills production.

AACTE Visitors Hold Conference

Professional visitors, representing the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, were on the campus October 31 to November 2.

Dr. Rees H. Hughes president of Kansas State Teachers College, Pittsburg, Kansas, and Dr. Robert Guy Buzzard, president of Eastern Illinois State College, Charleston, Illinois, were the principal accreditation visitors.

Dr. Hughes was accompanied by the following members of his faculty: Ernest Mahan, dean of instruction, Emory Kennedy, director of guidance, and Paul Bartolini, head librarian.

With Dr. Buzzard were Robert F. Heller, dean of instruction; William H. Ziegel, director of admissions; Roscoe Schaff, head librarian.

Also making the visit were Irvin F. Coyle, director for Teacher Education Certification and Curriculum in Missouri, and C. F. Scotten, county superintendent of schools, Sedalia.

The A. A. C. T. E. intervisitation schedule included meetings and conferences with administrators and faculty committees, observations of classes and laboratories, and conferences with representatives of the student body.

The primary purpose of the intervisitation program is to aid in the improvement programs for the education of teachers for American schools.

"Thanks so much . . ."

Homecoming on this campus is an all-College presentation. Through the splendid cooperation of the student body and faculty, we feel that this year's program was equal, and in many ways superior, to those of the past.

Although there are drones in every society, the majority of the campus pitched in to accomplish this feat. Committee chairmen and members, as well as organization presidents, did a magnificent job of marshalling their forces. We take this opportunity to say: "Thanks so much for a job well done."

New Record

Maryville has a new record—the coldest November since 1897.

Gals Get Opportunity to Snare Man When College Observes Al Capp's Sadie Hawkins Tradition All Next Week. Men, Beware!

In the town of Dogpatch, Mayor Hekzeblah Hawkins started Sadie Hawkins Day to end thirty-five years of Sadie's single cussedness. It seems that Sadie was quite a homely girl, and no male in his right mind would wed her.

Mayor Hawkins' idea was to gather all eligible bachelors at sunrise. After five minutes had elapsed, the howling, screeching, unmarried gals were allowed to go after them. If any man was caught, he had to wed the woman that caught him.

Sadie Was Successful
Sadie was successful in her man-hunt, and what started as a cartoon story many years ago is now a part of American life. Al Capp, Sadie's originator, upset male dominance in dating customs and established an opportunity for an all-out man-chase by the female species.

This hilarious affair will be observed on the NWMSC campus from November 12 to 16. The social committee, led by Herschel Neil, will be in charge of the arrangements.

Assume Financial Burdens, Too!
Attention is being directed to the fact that women are to assume the initiative in the dating performance and to accept the financial burdens. Also the wearing of Dogpatch style dress is to be encouraged. Acceptance of these customs is necessary for the success of such an intriguing program.

The highlights of the annual celebration of Sadie Hawkins Day will be a dance, Friday night, November 16. This dance will be in Dogpatch style, with outlandish costumes and Dogpatch hilarity.

Each Member Has Responsibility.
Each member of the social committee has some specific part of the plans for the dance Friday night, as follows: Lucille Steinhäuser,

One look at this picture should be sufficient to warn males that once again that dreadful Sadie Hawkins week is to be observed on the College campus. Girls, this is your chance of a lifetime to get a man, the one you want. But wait for the gun to sound before you start. Then men, run for your life; and, gals, run for your man. Left to right are Louise Wintemute, Max Miller, Lucille Steinhäuser, George Anderson, Herschel Neil, and Jean Short.

publicity; Max Miller and Herschel Neil, decorations; Louise Wintemute, refreshments; George Anderson, entertainment; Jean Short, invitations.

Admission to the dance, for which Jack Moore and his Collegians will play, is a $1.00 marriage license, purchased by the woman and bearing the signature of the unlucky male in tow of the purchaser.

Prizes Will Be Given
Several prizes are to be given at the Sadie Hawkins dance. Among these are prizes for the best dressed couple, according to Dogpatch standards; the best Little Abner; the Best Daisy Mae; the boy with the largest feet; the girl with the smallest feet.

Males must beware and be alert, be cautious and be careful. The females are in power.

THANKSGIVING, 1951

While Thanksgiving in its present form is a distinctively American holiday, it was not a new idea even with the Pilgrim fathers in 1621.

We can trace its origin back through the ages and nations to the land of the Canaanites. Later the Hebrews as invaders copied this custom of a harvest celebration and made it into an act of worship to Jehovah. The Greeks and Romans had harvest festivals honoring their pagan gods. In England the autumnal festival was called the Harvest Home.

Thus, being in the blood of America's first settlers, the custom reappeared early in our land. Our first authentic harvest festival was held in the Plymouth colony in December, 1621. During the winter the little group had been sorely tried. Only fifty-five of the one hundred and one pioneers remained alive. They had suffered cold, hunger, and disease. The harvest which autumn brought exceeded their wildest dreams. Never in Holland or Old England had they seen the like. Governor Bradford ordered a three days' feast and celebration, to which were invited their Indian friends. Religious services accompanied every day of that first Thanksgiving.

Today, we take for granted food, clothing, shelter, the feeling of security, and the right to make our own decisions regarding our religious and political views, those very things which were precious to our forefathers. As intelligent, educated youth of a college campus, let us pause during this coming Thanksgiving holiday to give serious thought to the many things we have to be thankful for and our responsibility concerning this abundance. As potential world citizens we cannot afford to be unconcerned.

In 1621, our Pilgrim ancestors gave thanks to a beneficent heavenly Father for a bountiful harvest. In 1951, let us do likewise.

HASTA LUEGO

Dear Editor:

Knowing that this will be the last issue of the Northwest Missourian in this quarter, I would be very happy if you would publish this letter.

When this quarter is over I will be going home. But before I leave, I want to thank, through your pages, all of the people who were so kind to me and made my stay in N.W.M.S.C. very happy.

I want to thank in particular the board of Regents and President Jones for the scholarship by which I could come to the College; to the Home Economics Department for the nice hospitality that they so nicely offered me after the explosion which destroyed the Residence Hall; and in general I want to thank all of the faculty members for the moments I spent with them and all of the students of the College for the sincere friendships they gave me.

Being in my country any time when I think of the United States I will remember N.W.M.S.C. and moments I spent in it. That is why I don't want to say good bye; I prefer to say in Spanish "Hasta luego," which means I hope I will see you after a while.

Thank you, Mr. Editor, for publishing this letter. With my best wishes for the success of your paper and the N.W.M.S.C.

Sincerely,
Maria Ardiles

THE PURPOSE?

As dry leaves from the trees cover the sidewalks at this season of the year, here a leaf from an elm, there one from a maple, and still another from a sycamore, so the halls of the Administration Building are covered with wrappers, here a wrapper from a Hershey, there one from a stick of Juicyfruit, and still another from an Almond Joy. Added to this are cast-off chemistry notes, programs from assemblies, bits of love letters, and other things of which the sum total can only be a mess.

From the Air

By Kossmann and Forster

We watched over the Maryville College's stadium in our little two-seater jet last Saturday and much to our amazement found a spectacle colorful and enthralling, so naturally we landed and fought our way into Memorial Field, settled down on our tin seats and speculated through the marathonic battle between NW Mo State College and SE Mo State College.

Bands wearing colors of every high school within fifty miles were present in all their splendor saluting this college which the territory has fostered. (We applauded quite loudly when the tiny Agency, Mo., assemblage passed by, for their plect in competing against such societies as the marching bands of Tarkio, Mo., and Grant City, not to mention Hamilton, etc.)

We screamed our delight when we discovered who had suddenly been selected the most beautiful girl on the campus, and in the backs of our minds decided that the students of the Bearcats fair have exceptionally good taste for women.

Earlier in the day we popped a gut watching Nathan and his bitch bring up the rear of the parade. A splendid affair! As a matter of fact, that parade had quite an assortment of characters, such as that girl with the bare feet, smoking a cigar (wonder if she carries on such activities in her own backyard; if so we'll be around, always did like to loiter around smoking a good White Owl through the stink of batheless feet.) (or vice versa). Actually did like everything about Homecoming Day except—

The boys in blues, as we started to say, were seated spread out through the whole stadium, all through clusters of them predominated in the center sections. The place was virtually silent; cheerleaders were going through their exaggerated motions and silence still prevailed. A spark caught in a group of uniforms and bedlam broke loose; they yelled, howled, screamed, tore out their hair, beat their feet on the stadium and, whether the rest liked it or not, aroused a spirit of enthusiasm in the crowd. From that period through the first half the whole stadium rocked with their enthusiasm, despite the cheerleaders, whom we heard later making such remarks as "Why don't you guys stick with us?"

Stick with you, we made you. If it hadn't been for those few snappy yells used by every high school in college in the entire country there would have been no vocal support to mention in this league at all. We believe that the "uniforms" deserve a hand for their support and we intend to throw the garlands where they are due.

Roberta Readmitted; Maxine Visits Campus

Roberta Steel, who was severely burned in the Residence Hall fire, April 28, was readmitted to St. Joseph's hospital, St. Joseph, October 15, for additional skin grafting surgery. Previous to this, Roberta had been at her home in St. Joseph for three weeks.

Maxine DeShon, also seriously injured in the fire, is recovering satisfactorily and was a visitor on the campus for the recent Homecoming celebration.

Students and Faculty Mourn Loss of Friend

Mr. Guy Haller, since 1938 the mail carrier for Northwest Missouri State College, died suddenly at his home on October 26. His death is deeply regretted by members of the faculty and students who enjoyed seeing him and talking with him as he went about his work.

Mr. Haller is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nellie Bracken Haller, and a daughter, Mrs. Vernon Arne.

Landscapes of Estes Park Are on Display

Miss Olive S. DeLuce, head of the Fine Arts department, has been displaying some of her paintings this quarter.

The three paintings that have been on display this week, are landscapes of different parts of the scenic Estes Park countryside in Colorado.

The three paintings are "Long's Peak," "Forest Canyon," and "Deer Mountain from Moraine Peak."

New Niece, Linda Lou

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Neece are the parents of a daughter, Linda Louise, born October 24, at the St. Francis hospital.

Linda Lou looks very much like Nancy Sue, her older sister. Mamma and Poppa Neece must indeed enjoy having two such beauties around the house.

Mr. Neece is the business manager of the College.

Hagan Attend Homecoming
Mr. and Mrs. F. Hagan, 3821-20th Street, Meriden, Mississippi, were visitors on the campus during the Homecoming festivities. Mrs. Hagan, the former Jo Ann Wright, is the daughter of Mr. R. T. Wright of the agriculture department.

Patrons: Missouri Advertiser.

Queen and Court Highlight Parade

Highlighting the Homecoming parade was the beautifully decorated Queen's float, and it might also be added, this beautifully occupied float. Spearheaded by a huge swan and surrounded by lavish decorations are attendants Mary Lou Moore, Mary White, Joyce Baker, and Bea Straight. In the center is Queen Joan Hansen.

Vet Village News

By Homer A. Baxter

Was awakened by shotgun blasts early Saturday morning. Rushed to the door to see if some perfidious husband had been discovered, but it was only some neighbors shooting ducks.

Dog connoisseurs would find Vet Village to their liking. Although two of the larger species, a Great Dane and a Boston Bull recently moved away, we still have a fair assortment of sizes and colors.

Three Take Honors

Wayne Kinman has a pair of aspiring coon hounds to take honors for the larger size now, while the Joe Dobbins family sweep the field in the little dog class.

This little fellow is by far the cutest dog in the village, measuring about four inches high and ten inches long, with black and white spotted curly fur indicating vestiges of Cocker Spaniel.

Another in-between, not-so-happy, black job, owner unknown, dashes into any open door on the slightest provocation.

Some Have Had Mean Owners
Dogs of this sort are of the unwanted, having been abandoned by their mean former owners. Here in Vet Village they become a part of the dog society but are seldom accepted by any one family in particular.

Thus they probably don't have the proper type of up-bringing they deserve.

Incidentally, little Paul Gerald Spring has found a dog-collar, license No. 152, that some dog in his exuberance has thrown off. Same may be obtained at the Spring home Apt. 12.

Attend Dance

The elder Paul Spring and his wife surprised no one when they went to the Homecoming dance. They have been taking vitamins for some time and everyone was sure they could make it.

Donald "Speedy" Blair, the Vet Village postmaster, asks that you notify the proper postal authorities when you move so that your mail does not continue to come to Vet Village.

It's Not Here Yet!

Incidentally, "Speedy" hasn't got his G. I. check for September yet. Consider the irony of it. All month he has had abuse heaped on his head from every quarter as the checks dribbled in, two or three each day.

One would have thought he was the paymaster instead of the innocent deliverer. Now everyone except "Speedy" has received his check. Yet he will have the last laugh. When he gets his check he will still have the pleasure of spending it, while that pleasure will have been long forgotten by most of the other recipients.

Let's Change Procedure

Congratulations are surely in order to the Homecoming Committee for a great forty-fifth Homecoming celebration; many should be commended individually.

Northwest Missouri State also had one of its finest Queen courts—a beautiful queen and lovely attendants.

Quite some time before Homecoming even began to be put into gear, there was considerable talk concerning the Air Force and whether or not they should have the privilege of voting in this election.

Some students believed that the uniformed men would form a bloc and elect their own candidate. This, however, was not done; the Queen was as much the students' choice as the Air Force's.

The most astounding thing, though was the procedure in which this election was conducted. The democratic process of voting if you wanted to be hinged with the prerequisite of attending an assembly.

And great pains were made to accommodate the Air Force in a one hundred per cent voting participation, rather than letting the individual men vote if they so desired.

It seems to me that the majority of these Air Force men were not interested in the College's Homecoming to the degree that the students were. For example, along with the privilege of voting for Homecoming queen was granted the right to participate in every other event.

Votes were cast for the queen but their skit never appeared in the Variety Show; their float never appeared in the parade. Individually some were enthusiastic over the proceedings, and helped to make them come about; but the majority weren't.

Meanwhile, the student body, who had a prime interest in the queen contest among the many other activities they were engaged in, discovered to their dismay that only one short specified period of the day was allotted for this selection. And that period was an assembly.

This year such a mode of electing might have been the most convenient process; but as a precedent, let's let it be conveniently disposed of and afford everyone the right to vote or the right not to vote, as he so wishes.

Twelve College Seniors Are Selected by Who's Who

Irma Jean 'Long

Vice President of the Student Senate Irma Jean Long is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern M. Long of Easton.

Jean, a junior, is active in Alpha Sigma Alpha, Association for Childhood Education, Green and White Peppers, Student Senate, Pan-Hellenic Council, Kappa Delta Pi, and cheer leading.

Besides being vice president of the Student Senate, Jean is secretary of Kappa Delta Pi, reporter for the Green and White Peppers and A. C. E., and Pan-Hellenic representative for Alpha Sigma Alpha.

Last year Jean was honored by the American Association of University Professors.

Jean has a major in primary education and expects to receive her B. S. degree in May, 1953. After graduation she would like to teach kindergarten or possibly do graduate work in supervisors' field of elementary education.

William Eugene Ogden

William Eugene Ogden, a native of Maryville, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Ogden.

He is president of Phi Sigma Epsilon and president of the Industrial Arts Club.

Previously he has been president of the Junior class, Tower king, and treasurer of the Sophomore class.

William, better known as "Bill," has a major of industrial arts and a minor of agriculture. He expects to receive his B. S. degree in the summer of 1952. He plans to teach.

Terry Dale Noah

Terry Dale Noah, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Noah of Cahnsville, has a business major and a speech minor.

Terry is active in the Phi Sigs. Previously he was a member of the Ag Club, student senator of the Junior class, and Student Senate chairman of the Social Committee during his junior year.

After receiving his B. S. degree he plans to enter the Army and later work toward a master's degree in Personnel.

Jean Ann Short

Jean Ann Short is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ja Short of Excelsior Springs.

Jean expects to receive her B. S. degree in November. She plans later to teach Air Force classes at the College.

She is an active member of Alpha Sigma Alpha, Green and White Peppers, Sigma Phi Dolphin, and Dramatics Club.

She was secretary of Alpha Sigma Alpha two years, stunt captain in the Green and White Peppers, on the Homecoming committee in 1950, on the Social Committee in 1951, attendant to Homecoming queen two years, elected to Kappa Delta Pi, and given the Frost Fidelity Award in Alpha Sigma Alpha.

Jean has an English major and a speech minor.

The Stroller

By far the most common sight which greets the roving eyes of the Stroller as he ambles idly about campus and classroom are other pairs of eyes which bear a striking resemblance to his own. Around them blossom black circles reminiscent of the big "O" in the Cape scoring column.

Nothing to worry about, though. By this time the Homecoming tension has dissolved and everyone has been restored to an amicable humor. No doubt the circles will gradually disappear, too.

Bill Ogden actually stopped in the hall to talk for five minutes. His mother insisted that he hadn't stopped to eat for two weeks.

Friday night's pep rally and queen crowning went over with a big dull thud. (Casting no aspersions on the queen selection, but only on the way it was handled.)

George Anderson was still trying to swing votes after the Variety Show.

John Cox, an "alum," asked about Homecoming activities when he registered. About all he found out for sure was that he was in Maryville. Wot happened to the registration system?

Special commendation to various committee chairmen of Homecoming should be given. Mel Clothier, of course, for his great job, and then to Dick Gordon, who did magnificently in decorating the Queens' float. Bev Pile was instrumental in the dance decorations, Oretta Knipmeyer was very resourceful in ideas for campus ornamentation, and Bill Ogden's parade alignment was commendable.

Mack Swafford must be the most lovable guy on the campus. During the parade, a small colt in fond affection applied his teeth to a portion of Mack's tender anatomy.

Dean Stuck proved his ability to carry the ball for Doc Surrey in the sportscaster's spot.

Quote of the week (from George Coulter, who was laid low twice during the Cape game): "They must have sneaked up behind me."

Thrill of a lifetime: getting to smoke in the halls at the dance.

An airman was crying the blues about his orders for Far East duty until he found that the person to whom he was waving was a twelve-month infantry veteran of Korea.

Between classes in the smoker: A variety of sights, including some cigarettes butts on the floor.

Warning to campus drivers: Be careful when crossing the new ditches in the campus drive. (By the by, the Stroller must remind his secretary to make an appointment for him to join Homer Baxter at duck hunting one of these dawns.)

Business students missed seeing Doc Surrey's smiling face and hearing those Surreyisms.

Before long the Sadies will cast eager glances manward and the battle will be on. May the best girl win!

Tempis fugits faster and faster. It seems only

Student Teachers Have Assignments

Teachers-in-training on this campus who have Horace Mann assignments this fall show an overwhelming interest in secondary work as compared to work in the elementary grades. While forty students are teaching in high school, only eighteen have assignments in the lower grades.

Those who are working in the laboratory school this quarter are as follows:

Secondary education: Joan Taylor, Louise Tobin, Donna Hoffman, Mary Fink, Betty Ann Wilson, home economics; Sharlis Wheeler, Truman Geer, Jean Short, English; Richard Gordon, Sue Thompson, Betty Stroud, Lillian Pease, Rex Fryar, Mary Lou Breit, business.

Alton Ruckman, Mary Lou Moore, Virginia Wickman, Oretta Knipmeyer, George Bunch, Barbara Coy, John Dunlay, social science; Joe Collier, Arlene Beavers, biology; Alvin Adams, William Yach, Bob McIntyre, Henry Sparkman, Wesley Dick Morrison, Austin Pollard, industrial arts.

Betty Reeves, Marjorie Lewis, fine arts; Richard Bryson, Bob McIntyre, Dwain Sawyers, mathematics; Dwan Wick, physics; Roger Grunwald, Marvin Weed, Glenn Sherry, Wayne Kinman, Wesley Dick Morrison, Kurby Lyle, physical education; Dee Lippincott, music.

Elementary education: Jane Costello, Arlene Blank, nursery; Beverly Pile, Emma Linden, kindergarten; Kay Vest, Lois Hoskinson, Virginia Jackson, Ruth Gammell, first grade; Randy Montgomery, Lillian Urte, Joan Noble, Beverly Bowman, second grade; Lila Arlene Bauer, Lola Mae Johnson, third grade; Joan Jones, Beverly Harvey, fifth grade; Margaret Kelim, Art Lovan, sixth grade.

Six Students Compose Panel on Organizations

Six College students composed a panel on "College Sororities, Fraternities, and Organizations," which presented the viewpoints of the various members who led the Methodist Wesleyan group in a discussion. Mary White was chairman of the discussion and presided over the discussion. She also represented the Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Rita Young represented the Alpha Sigma Alpha; Louise Wintermute the Independents; Herschel Neil, the Phi Sigma Epsilon; Mary Lou Moore, Delta Sigma Epsilon; and Herbie Awe, Sigma Tau Gamma.

Items discussed were the aims and objectives of the organizations, limited membership, dues, initiation, and political activities and tendencies.

Airmen Assigned To Three Bases

Airmen of Group XVII, who Saturday graduated from the Air Force clerk-typist school at Northwest Missouri State College, have been assigned to three bases. Ten men will report to Hamilton Air Force Base, Calif., nine to Elgin Air Force Base, Ill., and five to Camp Kilmer, N. J. Those dispatched to New Jersey will receive overseas assignment, according to Lt. Cletus T. Pajot.

At commencement exercises Saturday, Lt. Pajot presented each airman with a certificate for satisfactory completion of the 12 weeks' course here and Pres. J. W. Jones awarded the men with college certificates.

Robert Hunter, Walton, N. Y., honor student of the group, was one of five men promoted to the rank of corporal. The others are Adolph Desjardins, Oakville, Conn.; Vincent Manento, Scranton, Pa.; Leon Pencek, Jersey City, N. J., and James Walsh, Dorchester, Mass.

Men who graduated are: Samuel Benjane, Kingston, N. Y.; William Burke, Detroit, Mich.; Charles Desjardins, Oakville, Conn.; Richard Porter, Tewksbury, Mass.; David Goodfellow, Cumberland, Md.; Robert Hauser, Pawtucket, R. I.; Robert Hunter, Walton, N. Y.; Leonard Johnson, Woburn, Mass.; Ross Johnson, Eastport, Me.; Richard Laporte, Worcester, Mass.; James Leeger, Sanford, Me.; Ray Mabe, Woodlawn, Va.

James Mallory, Warren, N. Y.; Vincent Manento, Scranton, Pa.; Thomas McElmorrow, Rockland, Mass.; Emil Meyer, Maspeth, N. Y.; Vincent Podella, Jr., South Ozone Park, N. Y.; Leon Pencek, Jersey City, N. J.; Robert Sanford, Medford, Mass.; Harold Smedley, Killarney, W. Va.; Wallace Stewart, Flushing, Mich.; James Walsh, Dorchester, Mass.; and William Wilcox, Pawtucket, R. I.

Pi Omega Pi Initiates Seven Into Pledgeship

Pi Omega Pi accepted seven new pledges into their ranks Tuesday night, October 16, and accepted Paul Ross as an active member. The pledges are Grace Beeks, Joe Thompson, Thelma Buckley, Leona Greever, Wilma Payne, Maryle Tunks and Johnny Hoffman.

A short business meeting was held following the initiation exercises and plans were made for Pi Omega Pi's entry in the Homecoming parade.

After all business was taken care of, refreshments of cookies, ice cream, and pop were served.

Talks On Art

Mr. Ellery Gibson, head of the Horace Mann art department, talked to the Fine Arts II class on Monday, October 29, on "Trends of Modern Art, and Modern Art Education."

Variety Show Honors Go to These Two Colorful Skits

Work of Many Committees Helps Make 1951 Homecoming Success

Homecoming carries with it not only fun and gaiety but a tremendous amount of work. Although every student is expected to contribute with his help, the initial responsibility for the coordinated work program was given to the following committees:

Student chairman, Melvin Clothier; faculty chairman, Dr. John Harr; general liaison and planning, Clothier, Dr. John Harr, Mr. Everett Brown, and committee chairman.

Publicity, Herb Awe, Mr. F. B. Houghton, Miss Violet Hunter, Ray McClaren, George Nathan, Gene McClain; Camps Signs and Banners, Jo Ellen Wilson, Harold Gray, Mr. Ellery Gibson.

Contacting Alumni, Lillian Pease, Dorothy McCaffrey, Everett Brown, Mr. Dale Blackwell, Miss Mattie Dykes, Miss Neva Ross, and one representative from each organization to help with mailing.

Pep Rally, Mary Jo Vernon, Mr. E. Winn, Miss Doris Hysler, Mr. E. A. Davis, Miss Bonnie Magill, and cheer leaders; Variety Show, Sue Condon, Dwan Wick, Mr. Ralph E. Fulson, Dr. Frank Grube, Mr. Biffie Moore.

Homecoming Dance, George Bunch, Mr. R. T. Wright, Mr. Myri D. Long, Mr. Clifford Kensing; Decorations, Beverly Pile, Mr. J. K. Sowards, Mr. John Taylor, Mrs. Virginia Dorman, Miss Olive DeLuce, Bill Arnold, Bill Conroy, George 20 A.P. One representative from each organization to help put up decorations and to clean up afterwards.

Homecoming Parade Organization and Planning, Bill Ogden, Mr. David Crozier, Mr. Donald Valk, Mr. Kenneth Thompson, Mr. Donald Sanford, Wallace Croy, Herschel Nelson; Purchasing Agent, Walt Stanton; Housing for Alumni, Miss Martha Locke and Mr. Lon E. Wilson; Procurement of Judges, Dr. J. G. Strong, Miss Mabel Cook, Mr. Robert Foster, Miss Estella Bowman, Mr. George Gaylor, and Mr. W. T. Garrett.

Registration of Alumni, Miss Martha Locke.

Campus Decorations, Oretta Knipmeyer, Mr. Howard Ringold, Mr. Ellery Gibson, Mary Lou Moore and Harold. Housing Alumni, Miss Martha Locke and Mr. Lon Wilson.

Entertainment and helping to feed the visiting high school bands, Beverly Harvey, Mr. William Lafferty, Mr. Donald Sanford, Miss Rachel Taul, Dr. Leon Miller, Miss Katherine Franken, Dr. Joseph Drell, Mrs. Myrie Dacken, Dr. Irene Mueller, Miss Margaret Franken, Mr. Donald Sanford, Miss Doris B.

Twenty-seven Go to Phi Sigma Banquet

Twenty-seven alumni were present at the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity's annual Homecoming dinner held after the football game Homecoming Day. The dinner was held in the banquet room of Jimmy Vann's Cafe in Maryville.

Alumni at the dinner were: Brooks Wade, Kansas City; John Cox, Mapleton, Iowa; Harold Ashbaugh, Shenandoah, Iowa; J. D. Rush, Maryville; Earl Holt, Atlantic, Iowa; Gaylord Headrick, Maryville; John Shell, Maloy, Iowa; P. J. Jantze, Kansas City; Irwin Thomas, Rockport; Gordon Bixler, St. Joseph; Robert Masters, and Glen Meredith, Maryville.

H. T. Judd, Denver, Colorado; Jim Manson, Kansas City; Bill Shell, Emerson, Iowa; Charles Dendorf, Syracuse, New York; Robert Bradley, Sidney, Nebraska; Dick Owens, Eagleville; Bob Miller, Maryville; Herman Hausheer, Iowa City, Iowa; Darrell Grace, Burlington Junction; Jack Miller, Platte City; Jim Poor, Albany; Bill Vest, McCallsburg, Iowa; Dean Hoshor, Maryville; Dave Arthur, Council Bluffs; and Don Jensen, Maryville.

Mr. W. T. Garrett and Mrs. H. R. Dieterich, fraternity sponsors were on hand as were Dr. W. A. Brandenburg, honorary adviser, Dr. Frank Grube, Dr. J. G. Strong, Mrs. Lon Wilson, and Dr. R. C. Person, honorary members of the fraternity.

This information will be placed on the advisement sheet at the end of the academic year.

It is hoped that by making this information available, every student will have an understanding of his class standing and will be able to remove any deficiency in sufficient time preceding graduation.

Thank You!

As co-chairman of the 1951 Homecoming variety show, we should like to express our thanks to the many persons who contributed to its success.

To Mr. Ralph Fulson as faculty advisor and to Mr. Biffie Moore, both of whom did much work on the stage in preparing it for the presentation—our special thanks. A thank you to Gilbert Whitney as organist, and Lyle Martin as master of ceremonies.

For technical assistance in staging and lighting the show, we should like to thank Jim Hugin, Bill Hunter, and Dean Wintermute. Special thanks, too, to Ray Espey and Alvin Long for technical assistance with the public address system.

We should like to thank the organizations who cooperated to make this show possible.

It is with such cooperation that future Homecoming shows will be assured of success.

Queen J. Hansen Is Honored Guest

Active Tri Sigmas and alumnae were entertained with a smorgasbord supper at the Christian church October 27. Honored guests were this year's Homecoming queen, Joan Hansen, and her attendant, Mary White; last year's Homecoming queen, Mary Bauman, and attendant, Joyce Smith; and last year's Town of queen, Sharlis Marple Wheeler.

Other Tri Sigma queens of former years who were present over the week end were Mary Lou Rockwell, Mound City; Margaret Curry, Oregon; Maxine McDermott Weed and Helen Fisher Mutz, Maryville, to mention only a few.

In Homecoming competition this year, the Tri Sigmas placed second in parade participation, first in group of clowns, third in Variety Show, and fourth in house decorations.

Tri Sigma is very proud to announce that two of its members made "Who's Who" this year. They are Sharlis Marple Wheeler and Joan Hansen.

Canadian May Become Citizen of the States

Here on the campus is Pfc. Bernard Pessah, Group 25, a native of Montreal, Canada.

After spending three years in the Canadian Air Force, he joined the American Air Force, and took his basic training at Sampson Air Base, New York.

While in basic training, Pfc. Pessah took the G.E.D. test which is equivalent to a high school examination and makes a person eligible for a diploma from any high school in the country.

After serving three years in the American Air Force, Pfc. Pessah can automatically become a citizen of the United States. He has made no definite plans, as yet, but is thinking about staying in the States.

Phi Sigs Will Attend Kirksville Conclave

Phi Sigs are looking forward to a Missouri Regional Conclave of the fraternity to be held in Kirksville, November 16 to 18.

Gamma chapter at that time will be host to Nu chapter, Maryville; Alpha chapter, Emporia, Kansas; Iota chapter, Warrensburg; and Theta chapter, Cedar Falls, Iowa. Maryville Phi Sigs were hosts at a similar meeting during the spring quarter of 1950.

The Missouri Regional Conclaves give the Missouri and Iowa chapters of Phi Sigma Epsilon an opportunity to get together for business and discussions, good fellowship, and to further friendly relations among the respective campuses.

Newman Club Members Visit Conception Abbey

After making a trip to Conception last Sunday, members of the Newman Club and members of the Air Force, felt they have seen much of interest and have also learned a great deal.

They especially enjoyed seeing the library of rare books and the specimens in the laboratory of the biology department, of the school. At Clyde they visited the Chapel which is famous for its mosaics. Those over the high altar are the second greatest in the United States. Also of interest were the mural paintings in the basilica.

Miss Hattie Housh went on an early dinner for those who served on the trip.

Grade Point Averages Will Now Be Available

Beginning this quarter, Mr. R. P. Foster, the Registrar, intends to figure grade point averages for every student at the end of each quarter.

This information will be placed on the advisement sheet at the end of the academic year.

It is hoped that by making this information available, every student will have an understanding of his class standing and will be able to remove any deficiency in sufficient time preceding graduation.

Home Economics Club Initiates Twenty-two

Home Economics Club initiated twenty-two girls during the fall quarter.

Patty Neff, Arlene Rinehart, Carolyn Risser, Irene Schmitz, Joan Sneed, Edna Spear, Ramona Sommer, Jo Ann Volk, and Norma Woods.

Help United Nations

United Nations cookbooks will be sold by the members of the Home Economics Club. All profit made from the sale of these books will be given to the national fund. This fund is used to further international relations by enabling foreign students to come to this country to study home economics.

Industrial Arts Again Sponsors a Sensational Winner

With a huge Bearcat mounted on a trailer decorated beautifully in green and white, the Industrial Arts Club won a first place as the most beautiful float in that division. Their "Mr. Bearcat" had movable jaws. Last year this same Club also topped a first place with a "steamboat" float that was acclaimed one of the best in Homecoming history.

Forty-fifth Homecoming Hits Peak for College's Greatest

Hundreds of returning alumni, fun at the Variety Show, the parade with its bands and floats, cheering football fans, coffee with the President and Mrs. Jones, all combined to make Homecoming, 1951, at Northwest Missouri State, one of the best.

From many sections of the United States, and in large numbers, came former students of the College to join in the Homecoming festivities. Competitive spirit ran high among campus organizations which engaged in friendly rivalry to gain points for the much-desired Supremacy Cup.

ASA and ACE Tie

Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority and the Association for Childhood Education tied for first place in the fourth annual Variety Show held in the College Auditorium, Thursday and Friday nights, October 25 and 26. The Alphas presented "The Dark Town Poker Club," and the A. C. E. parodied the story of the elves and the shoe maker in "The Magic Shoe Show."

Sigma Wins Third

Third place went to Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority for its presentation of "Sigma Dreams." The skit "Sigma Tau Ramblings" received a fourth place rating for the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity. Fifth place resulted in a tie between Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority and the Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity. The Delta Sigs offered a skit entitled "Heaven Help Us"; the A. P. O. presented "Hellzapoppin'." Independent Club parodied Romeo and Juliet and Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity had a radio quiz program. Dance Club presented three exhibition numbers.

Mr. Gilbert Whitney played popular music on the organ, and Lyle Martin, master of ceremonies, did an outstanding job of entertaining the audience between skits with jokes and musical numbers.

Pep Rally Follows Variety Show

Because of rain, the Homecoming Pep Rally was held in the auditorium immediately following the Friday night presentation of the Variety Show.

George Nathan, master of ceremonies, introduced the cheerleaders who led the crowd in several yells. Nathan also introduced "Lefty" Davis, athletic director, and Pete Younger and Russ Dowell, graduates of the College, who gave short talks.

Walt Stanton Crowns Queen

Concluding the evening's program was the presentation of the queen candidates and their escorts. With the applause of the crowd, Walt Stanton crowned Miss Joan Hansen as 1951 Homecoming Queen.

Despite the cold weather and cloudy skies, the usual crowd of spectators lined the streets to view the annual Homecoming Parade. The originality of the floats and the colorful marching bands held the interest of the crowd through the entire parade.

Independents Win First

First place plaque for the best all-around float was awarded to the Independent Club for their gold statue of a football player. The Industrial Arts Club with their white bearcat received second place in this division.

The I. A. Club float was given first place in the Class A division, beauty, followed by Independent Club, second; Alpha Sigma Alpha, third; Delta Sigma Epsilon, fourth; with Intermediate Club and Sigma Tau Gamma tied for fifth.

Phi Sigs Win First in Humor

Class B, humor, found Phi Sigma Epsilon, first; Ag Club, second; Alpha Phi Omega, third; Sigma Tau Gamma, fourth; Association for Childhood Education, fifth.

Winners in the high school marching band contest are as follows: Class A, Rock Port, first; Lenox, Iowa, second; Tarkio and St. Joseph Lafayette, honorable mention. Class B, Mound City, first; New Market, Iowa, second; Hopkins and Craig, honorable mention.

Independent Club also received top honors in house decorations followed by Alpha Sigma Alpha, second; Delta Sigma Epsilon, third; Sigma Tau Gamma and Sigma Sigma Sigma, fourth.

Bearcats Defeat Indians!

On Saturday afternoon, students and alumni gathered at Memorial Stadium to watch the Bearcats defeat the Cape Girardeau Indians. During the half-time ceremonies, Athletic Director E. A. "Lefty" Davis was honored for his 25 years of service to the College. George Nathan, "M" Club representative, presented Mr. Davis with a large trophy, a beautiful clock, as a remembrance from the "M" Club.

Mr. Davis, in an acceptance speech, expressed his appreciation of the gift and said that the years of his association with the school had been pleasant ones.

Coffee After Game

Following the game, President and Mrs. Jones entertained alumni and student guests in their home with a "come as you are" coffee hour.

The dance Saturday night in Rooms 113 and 114 served to climax the 1951 Homecoming events.

Music was furnished by Lec Barron and his orchestra from Omaha. Chairs, sofas, and tables were in the hall for the convenience of those who wished to relax. The bookstore was open to supply refreshments.

Decorations were done in black and white. Beverly Pile, chairman, and her committee, used crepe paper and modern art to create an elaborate effect. One outstanding feature of the scheme was the large ball covered with glistening mirror chips which hung from the ceiling of Room 114.

Women's PE Department Sponsors Coffee Hour

The women's physical education department held their annual Homecoming coffee for majors, both students and alumni, on Saturday October 27, at ten o'clock. The coffee was served at the apartment of Miss Doris Hysler.

Those attending were: Mrs. Sara Jane Bowers Huggins, Red Oak, Iowa; Mary Lou Neville, Glenwood, Iowa; Mrs. Mary Booth Kinman, Maryville; Mrs. Margaret Berry Christensen, Bedford, Iowa; Mrs. Dorothy June Masters Vest, McCallsburg, Iowa; Mrs. Albert Kuchs, Maryville; Mrs. Lawrence Wray, Maryville; Peggy Price, and Marilyn Litton, Egg City. J. W. Jones was also a guest.

World Traveler Will Share His Experience

Carleton Smith, noted lecturer and world traveler, will be present in the College Auditorium, Wednesday, December 5, to share his experiences with the students of the College.

As head of the National Arts Foundation, a non-profit organization, Mr. Smith originates and administers program to increase understanding an enjoyment of all the arts.

His annual reports on the state of the arts are broadcast and translated into all languages. Annually, Mr. Smith awards Operatic Fellowships, and directs interchange of artists between foreign countries.

Ave Visits in Texas

Herbie Awe, editor of the Northwest Missourian, plans to spend his Thanksgiving vacation in Texas visiting his uncle, Paul Gates.

Miss Alice Has Guests

Mrs. Phillip Rice and twin sons, Curt and Craig, were guests of Miss Anita Rice during the Homecoming week end.

IA Club Elects Ogden as Leader

At the first meeting of the year the Industrial Arts Club elected the following officers: Bill Ogden, president; Bill Yauch, vice president; Harry Green, secretary-treasurer; Henry Sparkman, social chairman; Whitey Hubble, sergeant at arms. Fifty-seven members were in attendance.

Jim Totten, William Paul Vulgamott and Jarrel Hofer were appointed at this time as a committee to formulate plans for the Industrial Arts Club participation in the Homecoming activities of the College. Another meeting is also planned in the near future. It is rumored that an extensive field trip may be forthcoming for members and instructors between the fall and winter quarters.

Forty students have recently joined the American Vocational Association and are entitled to monthly publications of the association and also the right to attend their annual convention in the near future at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Industrial arts, not being vocational in any way, is a division of the A.V.A. in which it is given special attention. One of the finest displays of vocational and industrial arts projects in this country is one of the feature attractions of the convention.

Putting two and two together the field trip planned might be in connection with the convention in Minneapolis. If this be the case, all members attending may be greatly enriched with new ideas in the industrial arts field and may enjoy a pleasant trip to the land of 10,000 lakes.

All Deltas Go Active Before Rushing Begins

For the second consecutive year, all the pledges of Alpha Phi chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon have become initiated members before the new rushing and pledging period begins. Joan Noble, of Gower, was installed as an active member on October 21, in an impressive candle-light ceremony at Hsieh Chin' Tang. This makes all Delta Sigmas on the campus of active status.

Rushing plans are proceeding under the general chairmanship of Mary Ellen Daniels. In charge of entertainment for the rush party will be Mary Lou Moore, chairman, Dorothy Jean McCartney, and Rosetta Reed.

Lucille Steinhauer heads the food committee with Shirley Alden and Norma Jean Hawkins. Decorations and location of the function will be decided by Treva Jo Thompson with the help of Dorothy Stanton and Agnes Steinhauer. Alpha Phi chapter has tentatively set up a quota system and plans to rush only a limited number of girls.

Sigma Phi Dolphins Resume Swim Tryouts

After three weeks of inactivity because of a breakdown of the chlorinator at the college pool, the Sigma Phi Dolphins resumed their meetings, Thursday, November 1.

Tryouts were held that night and several new members were selected. Initiation will be held in the near future.

Two Dances Are Being Planned for Pledges

The social committee of Phi Sigma Epsilon is in the midst of planning two dances in honor of its present pledge class. Dates for the dances have not been set, but the first of these dances will be held in the near future.

In the past it was the custom to hold one pledge dance per pledge period. In view of the single pledge period this year and because of the fact that it will be somewhat longer than previously, two dances will be held.

Return From Liberty

Louise Tobin and Mary Fink are back on the campus after teaching home economics at Liberty.

Bearcats End Conference Play Saturday Afternoon

Maryville Is Slightly Favored Over the Cellar Dwelling Mules

Victory Spirit Is High in Green and White Ranks; Greater Impetus With Every Practice

Coach Ryland Milner's Maryville Bearcats round out conference play this Saturday when they play host to the Warrensburg Mules.

Brisk November weather is expected for that afternoon when the Bearcats attempt to avenge a 32-19 defeat administered at Warrensburg last year. In view of past records and performances, the conditions look very black for Tate Page's Mules.

Warrensburg has not won a football game this season but has had two ties and five losses. Excluding the Springfield game last Saturday, at which Springfield was a heavy favorite, the Mules will have their last opportunity to get into the winner's bracket in the MIAA conference standings.

Strives for Fourth Place
Maryville, on the other hand, will be striving to maintain their fourth place standing in the conference behind Kirksville, Springfield, and Rolla.

Last year the Bearcats finished in fourth place with a 1-3-1 record. Before the Kirksville encounter last Saturday, Maryville had a 1-2-0 record. Cape and Warrensburg have 0-2-1 records.

General Missouri began their non-conference season with some close games. They tied Southwestern Kansas 6-6, but then were dumped by College of Emporia 12-7 and St. Benedict's 33-21. Later, Missouri Valley tipped them for a 27-9 set back.

Cape Was First Opponent
Cape Girardeau was the first conference opponent, and that struggle ended in a 13-13 tie. From there the Mules went to Rolla and fought a close contest, but the Miners emerged the 12-6 victor. Kirksville followed with an easy 22-6 win, and last Saturday Springfield met the Mules.

Based upon a statistical comparison of the mutual opponents, Warrensburg and Maryville have met, the Bearcats team is slightly favored in this week's contest.

Rolla, a school that defeated the Mules 12-6, ran over Maryville 30-14, at Cape, which had tied Warrensburg, lost to the Bearcats by one touchdown in a very one-sided encounter.

Victory Shows Trend
The victory for Milner's green and white gridgers was the first of the season. However, it showed an interesting trend and depicted a much better ball club than the one that bowed to Springfield and Rolla. Very impressive in that contest was the flank off the "T" that swung either end for long gains. Also conducive to offensive mobility was the single wing formation that featured Sherry and Graham.

Maryville, however, is still lacking in the pass defense it might have. Opponents have found the Maryville backfield an aggregation easily penetrated by spirals.

Bearcats Need Precision
On the offensive side, it seems that the Bearcats are lacking the ability for accurate, precision passes. Because of such a condition, the number of passes completed this season has been very low, the number intercepted not so low.

This contest will have no bearing upon the conference leaders, but it will constitute a definite battle for position among the three lower teams.

Larry Belt Wins First in Tennis

The Northwest Missouri State College tennis team played Tarkio College in a practice match three weeks ago and defeated the Owl Warriors four matches to one.

Jackie Donaldson of Maryville lost to Constance Sun of Tarkio, 6-3; 6-3. Peg Price and Evalene Donaldson met Miss Sun and her partner Pat Price in doubles and lost 6-1; 6-3.

Seedings for the men's tennis team were released by Dr. Frank Grube at the conclusion of the annual all-school fall tennis tournament. Larry Belt, by virtue of his victory over George Nathan in the finals was seeded number one. Nathan was seeded second followed by Hugh McFadin, Cal Goeders, Don Tilton, Lloyd Premier and Roy Hogan.

Results of Tarkio Matches:
Larry Belt (M) def. Jim Graham (T) 6-0; 6-3.

Clancy Moore (T) def. George Nathan (M) 6-3; 1-6; 17-15.

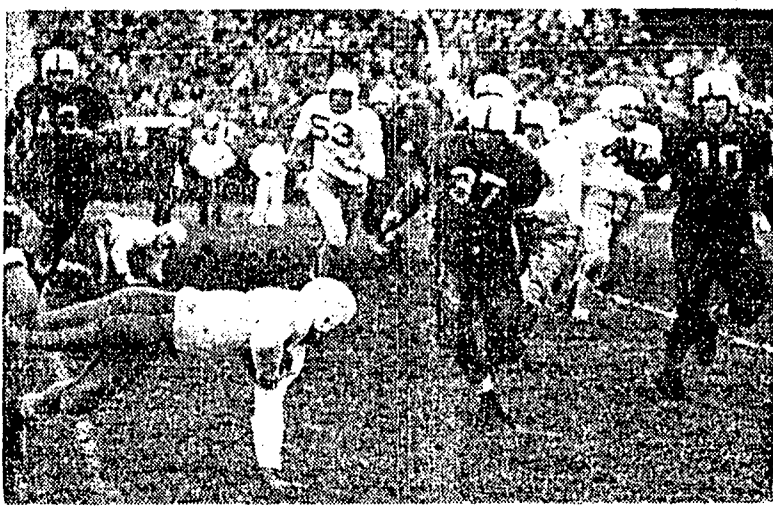

Hugh McFadin (M) def. Don Cornell (T) 6-2; 6-4.

Don Tilton (M) def. Dean George (T) 6-1; 6-4.

Doubles:
Belt and Cal Goeders (M) def. Moore and Graham (T) 6-0; 6-4.

Will See Guys and Dolls
Home furnishing class and the textiles class, accompanied by Miss Anita Rice, will go to Kansas City, Thursday, November 8, where they will visit garment factories and home furnishing stores. At night they will attend a performance of "Guys and Dolls."

Bearcats Trip Into Cape Secondary

Bearcats Get First Conference Win 7-0

Northwest Missouri State College celebrated its 45th annual Homecoming Saturday, October 27, as the Bearcat football team scored a 7-0 win over Cape Girardeau for their first victory of the 1951 season.

Urged on by the Homecoming crowd that numbered more than 4,000 people, the Cat gridiron took advantage of a pass interception by Kurby Lyle to push over a touchdown with only 42 seconds remaining in the first half.

Lyle Makes Interception
After twice being stopped within the Cape 30-yard line by penalties, the Maryville footballers started their winning drive with 2 minutes to play in the half. Cape's Bob Howell, got off a hurried pass that Lyle intercepted on the Maryville 35 and returned to the Cape 38.

From here Paul Tobin, behind fine blocking, skirted end for 18 yards and a first down. With crowd standing, Glenn Sherry broke loose to the 11, Chuck Graham split the middle to the 7 yard line and Captain John Hellerich called for time. What went on in the huddle was determined on the next play as Paul Tobin taking a pitch-out from Bob Hemenway hit outside the end to go into the end-zone standing up. Kenny Reynolds converted and Maryville led 7-0.

Cape threatened to tie the game up when a long pass from Howell to Fred Meyers was good for 40 yards as the gun sounded to end the first half of play. Meyers, after making a fine catch broke loose momentarily before Don Black tripped him up on the Maryville 30.

Cape Action Limited
Action during the second half was limited as the Cats put on a brilliant defensive show. Cape spent all of their time in their own territory. The Cats threatened twice more but lacked the necessary punch to score.

With Bob Hemenway running things, an all-freshman backfield drove from the Cape 34 to the 5 before Darrell Puleg fumbled to end the threat. Kenny Stevens and Pullen did most of the ball lugging during the drive with Stevens running 17 yards for the longest gain.

So tough was the Maryville defense that Cape picked up only one first down by rushing all afternoon. They managed to pick up only three more by passing. John Hellerich, Don Palmer, George Coulter, Howard Davenport, Bob Dillon, John Yurchak, Carl Leffingwell, George Haws and Ernie Hutchings were defensive bulwarks.

In the backfield the play of Chuck Graham, left little to be desired. Graham, who has been hampered by injuries through most of the season, was really tackling and filling the holes. Don Black and Kurby Lyle both came through with some fine pass interceptions.

Highlights of Game
Glenn Sherry and Paul Tobin, Maryville's two pony backs, both gained consistently. Sherry, racked up 89 yards while Tobin running mostly outside the ends, totaled 65.

Chuck Graham and George Coulter were recipients of trophies donated by the Quarterback Club to the game's outstanding players. Graham, while not his usual self on offense turned in a great performance from his line-backing spot. He continually broke through to spill the Indian runners for huge losses. Coulter, who twice had to be removed from the field was all over the place making teeth-rattling tackles.

All in all it was a great game and while Maryville seemed to lack enough scoring punch the boys came up with one of their best games of the year.

Kirksville Surges Toward MIAA Title; Edges Maryville 13-12

Underdog Bearcats Miss Upset by Conversion; Homecoming Battle Is in Cold, Windy Weather

Coach Ryland Milner's Maryville Bearcats sealed the living daylights out of undefeated Kirksville Saturday before finally falling 13-12 in their best played game of the season.

Early Basketball Sessions Indicate Best Cage Quintet

The Northwest Missouri State College basketball team open their 1951-52 cage campaign when they play hosts to Rockhurst College of Kansas City here, December 1. Although still in the woods as to the location of their home games, the Bearcats will definitely offer to Maryville cage fans a much improved team from last season's quintet that placed third in MIAA standings.

Twenty men still comprise the roster with additional help to come from football players after Saturday's game against Warrensburg. Kurby Lyle, John Yurchak, George Coulter, all lettermen from last year, will fit right into Coach Don Peterson's system, while newcomers, On Monachino, and Irv Albright, if they live up to their high school reputations, will prove valuable additions.

The Cats, who have been working out nightly for the past three weeks in the Horace Mann gymnasium, are slowly rounding into top playing condition. Dick Buckridge, Chuck Ramsey and George Nathan, all lettermen, have been standouts in early practice sessions. Newcomers, who have impressed local railriders with their talent, include Bobby Wright, Bob Wilcoxson, Larry Belt, Frank Yurchak and John Garner. Holdovers from last year's squad include Bill Stevenson, John Lindell and Bill Norton.

In Rockhurst, Coach Peterson and his eager will meet a fast-breaking outfit that split with them in two contests last year. Back again for another crack at breaking numerous scoring records that he established in the CIC conference last year is Bobby Williams. Against Maryville, Williams was held to his lowest total of Kurby Lyle. Other lettermen include John Williams and Bob Donahue.

In the Kirksville Bulldogs insured at least a tie for the banner by beating Maryville, 13-12, last Saturday. The Bulldogs have a conference mark of 4 wins and a tie; Springfield, with 3 victories and a tie kept in the race by blasting Warrensburg, 32-6. Springfield can share the Crown by beating Cape Girardeau at Cape Saturday.

Kirksville completes its schedule against Quincy College at the Illinois camp Friday.

In the other, and last conference game of the year, Warrensburg will play Maryville at Maryville.

Rolla's Miners, 1950 champs who beat Cape Girardeau 19-6, last Saturday, gets through against St. Leonard Wood at Rolla, Saturday.

Delegates Are Elected To Represent College

Members of the Community Teachers Association of the College have elected the following delegates and alternates to represent the group at the meeting of the Assembly of Delegates of the Missouri State Teachers Association in St. Louis, Wednesday, November 7.

Delegates—President J. W. Jones, Miss Jessie Juttin, and Miss Doris Hysler; Alternates—Mr. H. R. Dietrich, Dr. Leon Miller, and Miss Neva Ross.

New Constructive Intramural Program Includes Every Male

Eight Groups Will Be Formulated; Senior P. E. Majors Will Lead and Coach Competitive Units

Usually varsity sports consume the athletic display on a college campus, but here at Northwest Missouri State an energetic intramural director, Coach Don Peterson, has outlined a whole new program for the next two quarters.

This new procedure is designed to include every man in college. It stresses participation of every male in virtually every competitive sport.

Beginning last week, and extending to the end of the quarter, groups of fifty men have been selected to compose eight divisions. The intramural commission made the selection on the basis of home towns, counties, or states, depending upon the convenience of the grouping.

Watch Bulletin Board
The assigned groups and the names of the fifty men who compose each group will be posted on the intramural bulletin board in front of Room 113. For a coordinated effort between the commission and the students, it is important that all students watch the bulletin board carefully.

Three senior physical education majors will be in charge of the eight groups of four hundred men. They will act as coordinators, organizers, and coaches.

Groups Will Compete
Each group will be a competing unit with the other groups on the campus. Winter activities for intramural competition will be basketball, volleyball, badminton, aerial darts, ping pong, and perhaps swimming.

Basketball play among the groups is expected to be in order before Christmas. Because of the fact that there are fifty men in a group, two teams from each group will compete, and be called the "A" and "B" teams of that group.

Cooperation Is Needed
"Full cooperation of the students is needed to help this athletic organization function at its optimum," asserts Coach Peterson. He believes also that this college can have the finest intramural set-up in the country if the students will enthusiastically participate in the many events offered.

With the football season almost over and the basketball season progressing, Don Peterson as varsity basketball coach, will abandon his duties to football coach, Ryland Milner, who in the past has ably handled the intramural program.

In the past, competition in intramurals was determined by individual initiative. Interest of one student, or a small group of students, composed the core of intramural competition.

More Will Participate
Such a policy will rejuvenate the athletic functions of various organizations; the net result will be a more definite, a more constructive, enthusiastic participation by a greater proportion of the male students than was ever hoped for in the previous program.

Coach Ryland Milner's Bearcats have been a Homecoming team for three week ends in a row... at Charleston, Eastern Illinois celebrated Homecoming... then the Bearcats here two week ends back... and last Saturday the big celebration was at Kirksville.

If Homecoming has anything to do with the spirit of a team... it surely affected Don Palmer... the big fellow played sensational ball... even intercepted a pass... Palmer's only remark after that interception... and with wide smile was... "They tackled me before I could get to the sidelines."

Very deserving men... George Coulter and Chuck Graham... received the best lineman and backfieldman awards, respectively... Chuck is a senior but George still has another year to torment Maryville opponents.

This Saturday is going to be a sad Saturday... regardless of whether Maryville wins or loses... for in that game nine senior football men will complete their college ball... will try that last time on the gridiron for their school.

Here is the list... Chuck Graham... unquenchable... Roger Grunwald... potential... George Haws... persevering... John Hellerich... efficacious... Kurby Lyle... evasive... Chuck Oeller... resolute... Ken Reynolds... dependable... Glen Sherry... indispensable... John Yurchak... irrepressible... and all after this year... graduates... To the students!... Let's be there Saturday... it takes two to win the team and the fans.

Last week the scrubs were surprised at a few of the large gains chalked up against the defensive team while running Kirksville plays... Does practice make perfect?

Jim Gillett... after showing up remarkably... well in early seasonal play... is out for the remainder of the year... broken off the single-wing and Hellerich played his best game of the year defensively.

Maryville closes out their 1951 season at home Saturday when they meet Warrensburg.

Intermediate Officers Are Elected
At a recent meeting of the Intermediate club, the following persons were initiated into the organization: Keith Adams, Nina Belle Buckles, Pat Chanceloro, Marla Fellows, Gerald James, Margaret Kellim, Gilbert Rethemeyer, Phyllis Riegel, Phyllis Standlen, Betty Jean Teaford, and Eddie Woltz.

Attend Workshop
Joan Kowitz, Norma Waters, Norma Jean Hawkins, Jo Ellen Wilson, Jo Ann Volk, and Miss Anita Rice attended the Province workshop at the University of Missouri, November 1, 2, 3.

Maryville Recovers
After a 65 yard kick by John Yurchak to the Kirksville five had put the Bulldogs in a hole, Bender hit off tackle to the 12 yard line where he fumbled and Maryville recovered. Tobin skirted right end to the one-foot line and on the next play Hemenway dived over. Reynolds attempt at tying the game was wide and Kirksville stalled out the remaining minutes of play.

For the Cats who used only 17 men, John Hellerich, Don Palmer, George Coulter, Chuck Graham, John Yurchak, Glenn Sherry and Carl Leffingwell played the full 60 minutes. Graham and Sherry both were impressive with their running
